

An internationally operating German logistic software company is offering a position as

Software Engineer/ Database Developer

for their Pittsburgh PA Office.

Major Tasks

- performing application software development and system enhancements in a distributed platform environment across multiple technologies
- Perform application software development for large scale applications
- Code management and coordination across multiple branches of code.
- Technology quality assurance review and testing utilizing a variety of tools (for example: TOAD, Dos command, IPSwitch, WinSCP, terminal server technology)
- Coordinate on site and off shore teams that may consist of internal or external personnel or peers who code, test, and debug from specifications

Additional Responsibilities

- Develop complex software, performed across a variety of technology platforms, and create system design, coding, system testing, debugging and data transformations
- translate business requirements into specific systems, applications or process designs; perform gap analysis and identify technology components needed to support business
- full technical knowledge of all phases of applications systems analysis and programming; good understanding of the function for which application is designed, that are PL/SQL or database based.
- implement software development best practices and lessons learned as a means of continuous improvement

Special Job Requirements

- Oracle PL/SQL development experience
- Application software development, systems analysis, design/test experience and/or other related IT experience is required.
- Experience with projects that involve large batch processes in Oracle PL/SQL

We would welcome your interest in this interesting position by receiving your contact information and your cv soon to prepare further interviews.

With best regards,

Siegfried Möglich
JR Cape Company
Executive Partner

San Francisco USA

Tel +1 415 939 3970

E-mail siegfried.moeglich@jr-cape.com

Web www.jr-cape.com